B2B Compliance is ethical, well founded and equipped to meet Producers' needs for best value WEEE compliance.

B2B Compliance, the longest established and largest WEEE Compliance scheme of its kind, was developed following consultation with a 30 member Producer Taskforce. The Scheme has representation through Orgalime (the European federation of major trade associations) and is active in developing industry's position on the progress of a revised (Recast) WEEE Directive which will impact upon UK Producers in coming years.

B2B COMPLIANCE INNOVATIVE APPROACHES

While originally created as a non-household sector scheme we have developed innovative approaches to support Producers placing consumer products on the market.

Our Project Directors each have over 20 years' individual experience of Producer Responsibility legislation and practical hands-on recycling and have put in place a series of innovative solutions which will ensure that our Members will be compliant with any new WEEE regulations resulting from the forthcoming Recast WEEE Directive - this looks set to present significant challenges to Producers with increased collection targets and a new target for re-use.

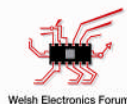

In 2010 we launched Electrobanks™ - aimed to complement other forms of collection but focused on small WEEE where collection rates need to increase dramatically. As our practical experience of bank type collection systems dates over 25 years we believe that we have the highest performing collection rates in the UK.

Early in 2011 we launched a series of trial of 'kerbside' collections of WEEE – giving us valuable information – building up on our equally long knowledge of kerbside collection systems – our results are currently the best in the UK.
